Mill Valley California

POINTS OF INTEREST

Nestled below majestic Mt. Tamalpais, Mill Valley is reminiscent of a charming European village. Surrounded by national parks, including Muir Woods, an ancient coast redwood forest, Mill Valley's lush landscape of hills and canyons is a favorite place for visitors who enjoy hiking, mountain biking, golf and running.

THINGS TO DO

Muir Woods National Monument

1 Muir Woods Road ~
One of the largest urban national parks in the world, Muir Woods, an ancient coast redwood forest, is located just 12 miles north of the Golden Gate Bridge.

The SF Bay Trail Bayfront Park and Bothin Marsh

Trailhead at E. Blithedale and Camino Alto ~
Relish the beauty of Marin County along this popular rail-trail in the shadow of Mount Tamalpais. Begin at the Bayfront Park and follow the trail south along the former Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way. The trail extends along the edge of the restored salt marsh habitat of Bothin Marsh.

Lytton Square

Throckmorton Avenue ~
You can feel Mill Valley's pulse in Lytton Square, a popular people-watching spot in the European style, especially from an outdoor table at the trendy Book Depot Café, a former train station. The tables in the downtown square were donated by rock impresario Bill Graham.

First Tuesday Art Walk

Downtown Mill Valley ~
The Mill Valley Art Walk takes place the first Tuesday of each month from 6pm-8pm. "Explore, experience appreciate, view, and buy art." A perfect way to enjoy a night out and support Marin artists. Stop at the Depot Bookstore for an artist listing and gallery map.

Alto Bowl/ Horse Hill and Camino Alto Open Preserves

Horse Hill Fire Road and Camino Alto Fire Road ~
The Camino Alto Preserve contains a variety of habitats within its 225 acres, including grasslands, bay/oak woodlands, and redwood/douglas fir forests. The fire roads in this preserve are popular with hikers, bicyclists, and equestrians, offering several relatively level routes along a spectacular ridge with outstanding views of San Francisco and Mount Tamalpais.

Mount Tamalpais Park

3801 Panoramic Highway ~
Just north of San Francisco's Golden Gate is Mount Tamalpais. It has redwood groves and oak woodlands with a spectacular view from the 2,571-foot peak. More than 50 miles of trail are within the park and connect to a larger, 200-mile-long trail system. Bicyclists are challenged by the twisting road to the top of the park's summit. The East Peak Summit features a visitor center and a refreshment stand that are usually only open on weekends (during the summer, the refreshment stand is open daily). Phone, picnic tables and a fully accessible restroom are also available. Mount Tamalpais State Park now offers Wi-Fi Service!
