

MARIN SHOPPING

Marin County knows how to shop. It's filled with people who love the finest things from all around the world—and the best selection from local craftspeople and artisans. Shopping in Marin has a very California style to it. With plenty of open air and sunshine.

DAY ONE

MORNING Start at The Village in Corte Madera. This premier shopping center features over sixty premium shopping destination with Nordstrom and Macy's as anchors and other favorites including Anthropologie, Restoration Hardware, Williams-Sonoma and more.

LUNCH Make your way to the Town Center in Corte Madera, a mere 5-minute drive from The Village and have lunch at more than a dozen restaurants including Blue Barn, P.F. Chang's, and Pacific Catch.

AFTERNOON Make your way up to Marin Country Mart, located across from the Larkspur ferry. Enjoy boutique shopping for all ages, then have a croissant from Rustic Bakery, or settle down with a creative cocktail on the patio of Farmshop.

DAY TWO

MORNING Take a smaller, more boutique-oriented approach as you stroll through downtown Novato. Shops of every kind await among historic buildings, tree-lined sidewalks, and abundant sunshine.

LUNCH Recharge with a fun and filling lunch at Chevy's Fresh Mex in Novato at the Vintage Oaks. Chevy's is an ultra-casual restaurant offering an array of freshly prepared Mexican dishes in a festive atmosphere.

AFTERNOON Explore the fifty-plus stores and restaurants to find great deals at Vintage Oaks in Novato, with a newly opened Nordstrom Rack . All presented with old-time ambience and service.
