Marin Convention & Visitors Bureau Launches New Website And Visitors Guide

San Rafael, CA – The Marin Convention & Visitors Bureau (MCVB) is about to release a new and updated website, scheduled to go on-line beginning in mid-May. This project has been in development for over a year and will include state-of-the-art technology for visitor interaction and event promotion.

In addition, a new and updated version of the MCVB Visitors and Meeting Planners Guide will be ready for distribution later this summer.

Creative Services Director, Deborah Albre commented, "This was a very exciting project for us as all of the design work was done in-house". "As a long-time resident of Marin County, I found myself discovering more fun and interesting details about the area I live in by keeping the visitor's perspective in mind while working within the design and content of the guide."

The MCVB will start distributing the new visitors guide to all stakeholder hotels, other members and industry partners when completed. These guides will be available at the MCVB office in San Rafael and the Marin Visitor Center West in Olema for visitors and area residents.
